

Kill Them With Kindness

Words and Music by Steve Kercher

We're up against the wrath of many foes
At every turn their tongues are sharp as spears
Take up the gauntlet
But if we fight they'll surely run us through

We can't run and we can't always hide
Retreat only intensifies the fear
If we want victory
Listen well this is what we'll do

Kill them with kindness
Kill them with kindness
Kill them with kindness

It may be a people across the seas
Or be demons in the mirror
It doesn't matter who they are
Love can conquer hearts that are cruel

Kill them with kindness
Kill them with kindness
Tilt with non-violence
Kill them with kindness

A sweet tune tames the cobra
A kind word to an enemy
Is pouring coals of fire on his head
